We will remind that over the past year, the production of anti-Semitic activities by the "Russian" platforms social networks in the country was described as "extraordinary". As far as the statistics of the press site "News of the Day" is concerned, in 2013 only seven cases of anti-Semitism have been reported, and in 2014 - 15. In February 2014, the Russian Ministry of foreign Affairs called social networks for "active surveillance" of hate speech. A team of Russian cybersecurity experts have warned that the sale of fake versions of Apple's iPad to the U.S. market poses a serious threat to both consumers and companies. Comparing the fake products to "potentially dangerous" fake iPhones made by Foxconn, the FSB, a national security agency, said in a statement that the impact of the devices could be similar, even if they do not include viruses or malware. The devices that the FSB said were sold in Russia were "touch screen devices with icons reminiscent of the brand Apple (but with a different logo), with the ability to run the same operating system (Android) and with a range of basic (not premium
